

Logging Out

You can log out of the PetroCore Reference from any page. Be sure to make any notes or bookmarks on your current page if you want to come back to it easily. All notes and bookmarks are saved automatically.

Note: Always log out, instead of just closing your browser window when you are finished using PetroCore Reference. This will log you out properly and prevent anyone from tampering with your account.

To log out of PetroCore Reference:

- 1 Click on the Log out link, located at the upper-hand corner of your screen.

You are now logged out of PetroCore Reference.
